Historic Properties
City of Newton, Massachusetts

State/National Register of Historic Places:
- All properties listed on the State and/or National Register of Historic Places in recognition of their historical importance.

Historic Resource Survey:
- Properties included in Newton's Historic Resource Survey have no formal designation. They are listed because of their architectural and/or historical association with the city.

Local Landmark:
- This is a local designation made by the Newton Historical Commission in order to preserve and protect buildings, structures, landscapes, and places which have been recognized to be architecturally and/or historically significant resources within the City.

Mid 20th Century Housing Survey:
- Properties included in Newton's Mid-Twentieth Century Housing Survey have no formal designation. This survey is a subset of the City's Historic Resource Survey and lists neighborhoods developed between 1940 and 1960 that have architectural and historical associations with the City.

Preservation Restrictions:
- Preservation restrictions are easements placed on properties held by the City of Newton to protect their historic character. They require review of proposed changes to the interior, exterior, and landscape depending upon the restriction. Preservation restrictions can be bought, sold, or donated and run for a set number of years in perpetuity. When considering alterations, property owners should check with the Preservation Planner to review the specific terms of their restriction.

Historic Districts:
- This is a local designation to preserve the architectural and historic characteristics of the area.
