

Newton Mayor Seeking Fall Interns

“Our success as a community will be judged on the kind of community we leave to the next generation. I’m asking high school and college students to become engaged in our community and do so starting today.”

-Mayor Setti D. Warren

Mayor Warren’s office is seeking qualified, enthusiastic individuals for internships. If you are a high school, college, or graduate student looking to gain some hands-on experience in government, we encourage you to apply. The ideal candidate will be a good team player, have excellent communication skills and have an expressed interest in local politics and government.. You will help with all aspects of office operations and have the opportunity to assist the Mayor’s office and other City departments with a variety of fun and interesting tasks.

- We have openings for internships beginning immediately.
- Course credit is available.
- Flexible hours.
- Gain valuable experience helping with the city’s budget, policy, and day-to-day operations of a fun and fast-paced office environment.
- Help out at events outside of City Hall.

To apply, please visit <http://www.Newtonma.gov/interns/application.doc> or send a resume, personal statement, and two references to Andrew Warner at AWarner@newtonma.gov. Call Andrew at 617-796-1103 with any questions.